

A CATALOG OF RECENT ACQUISITIONS 2017

CLASSIC BOOKS AND EPHEMERA
LANSDOWNE, PA
215 823-9607

classicbooksandephemera.com

Additional photos of most items are available on our web site.

We accept payment by credit card, check, or Paypal, and we ship worldwide.

We offer discounts to libraries and dealers.

Pennsylvania residents pay state sales tax.

Contact us by phone (215 823-9607) or through our website classicbooksandephemera.com

POLITICS

1. Boyko, Pável Nikoláevich. América Latina: Expansión del Imperialismo y Crisis de la vía Capitalista de Desarrollo. Moscow: Editorial Progreso, 1977. 258, [6] p.: tables; 21 cm. Light grey cloth with black stamped spine and cover titles; green stamped author's name and publisher's emblem? on front cover. No dust jacket. Translation of Latinskaia Amerika by M. Jusainov. This Spanish translation of Boyko's work on imperialism and capitalism in Latin America is very scarce. In Near Fine Condition: cover lightly soiled; pages are clean and tight. (#005254) $85.00

2. Calhoun, John C. Letter from the Secretary of War, to the Honorable D.P. Cook, upon the subject of the Examination of the Land Offices of the United States, in the state of Ohio. Washington, D.C.: Gales & Seaton, 1822. "April 5, 1822. Printed by order of the House of Representatives." 7, [1] p.; 23 cm. Disbound from a volume containing pamphlets relating to government land offices. At head of title: [106]. Last page blank. Shoemaker, 10973. The letter from John Caldwell Calhoun (1782-1850), Secretary of War under President James Monroe, is in reply to a letter from Daniel Pope Cook (1795-1837) with a report of a committee about the Land Offices in Ohio. Calhoun has included several documents, dated 1812, 1816, and 1822, relating to the employment of several people who were later elected members of Congress. Former owner's name on title page: John H. James (although part of the last name was cropped, it is clear from others bound in the same volume). This was John Hough James (1800-1881), an Ohio lawyer who was elected to the Ohio Senate in 1836. Very scarce. In Fair Condition: disbound; first leaf and final leaf are separated; loss along gutter edge of first leaf, not impacting text; all but final leaf are heavily browned. (#005225) $30.00

3. Clay, Henry. Report, On Senate Bill No. 6 [re: bills to appropriate, for a limited time, the proceeds of the sales of the public lands of the United States, and for granting lands to certain states]. Washington, D.C.: s.n., 1834. 37, [1] p.; 23 cm. Stitched; disbound from a volume containing pamphlets relating to government land offices. "[323]"--at head of every page. "In Senate of the United States."--at head of first page. Henry Clay (1777-1852) was presenting the report of the Committee on the Public Lands in response to President Andrew Jackson's objections to both the current and previous bills to appropriate, for a limited time, the proceeds of the sales of the public lands of the United States, and for granting lands to certain states. Includes the text of the bill, along with Clay's report on the expediency of reducing the price of public lands from the Committee on Manufactures made to the Senate on April 16, 1832, and other documents related to public lands. Inscribed at head of first page: "John H. James from Mr Clay." John Hough James (1800-1881), an Ohio lawyer elected to the Ohio Senate in 1836, was friends with Henry Clay. Very scarce. In Very Good Condition: disbound; scattered light foxing; otherwise, clean and tight. (#005230) $35.00

(a.)

Statement rendered in pursuance of a resolution of the House of Representatives of 25th January, 1832.

State or Territory.	Estimated amount of acres amount of lands in different titles have been extinguished.	Estimated amount of acres to which the Indian title has not been extinguished.	Appropriated for Internal Improvements, education, or charitable institutions.				Lands appropriated for terms of governments.	Saltine reservations.	Aggregate appropriations for each State and Territory.
			Number of acres for internal improvements.	Number of acres for colleges, seminaries, and universities.	The one-third, sixth, part of public lands appropriated for common schools.	For religious & charitable institutions.
Ohio	5,242,221	344,613	922,937	*92,800	678,576	143,523	-	-	1,737,838
Indiana	12,699,096	3,681,040	584,723	46,680	1,555,184	-	2,560	23,040	3,012,992
Illinois	28,237,859	3,153,110	480,000	46,080	977,437	-	2,560	206,128	1,713,225
Missouri	34,347,132	5,744,000	-	56,080	1,086,629	-	2,449	44,080	1,181,248
Mississippi	21,211,465	6,323,280	-	46,080	683,884	-	1,280	-	733,244
Alabama	20,167,728	7,760,890	400,000	46,560	722,190	623,040	1,680	23,040	1,216,450
Louisiana	23,198,234	-	-	46,680	873,973	-	-	-	920,653
Michigan	17,083,681	81,905,536	-	46,080	543,693	-	10,000	-	599,773
Arkansas	31,912,361	288,000	-	46,080	935,238	-	-	-	996,328
Florida	30,194,070	5,166,990	-	46,000	877,484	123,040	1,120	-	947,724
Aggregate	237,293,884	113,577,869	2,187,665	508,000	7,952,538	89,603	21,380	296,288	11,057,685

* Including Salt spring reservations, which are authorized to be sold by the State, and the proceeds applied to literary purposes.
† Including lands appropriated for schools in Clark's grant.
‡ Section No. 20, appropriated for religious purposes, in the purchases made by John C. Symmes and the Ohio Company.
§ For the benefit of the Connecticut Deaf and Dumb Asylum.
¶ For the benefit of the Kentucky Deaf and Dumb Asylum.
¶ The aggregate of unsold lands is to the 31st December, 1831.

GENERAL LAND OFFICE, April 2, 1832. ELIJAH HAYWARD.

4. History of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (Bolsheviks): Short Course; Edited by a Commission of the Central Committee of the C.P.S.U.(B.); Authorized by the Central Committee of the C.P.S.U.(B.) [signed by Earl Browder, Ella Reeve Bloor, Thomas Nabried, et al]. New York: International Publishers, 1939. xii, [2], 364 p; 22 cm. Red cloth with black spine and cover titles. Front free endpaper is signed by nine members of the Communist Party USA (CPUSA): Ella Reeve Bloor (1862-1951), known as Mother Bloor, a labor organizer and one of the highest female functionaries in the CPUSA; Sam Adams Darcy (1905-2005), a labor leader in New York City and California, and from 1939 to 1944 head of the eastern Pa. district of the CPUSA; Carl Reeve (1900-1980), son of Ella Reeve Bloor and an educational director of the CPUSA's eastern Pa. district; Thomas Nabried (1903?-1965), chairman of the CPUSA of eastern Pa. district and one of the founders of the National Negro Congress; Frank Hillman, a New Jersey district organizational secretary of the CPUSA; Samuel Miller, a CPUSA organizer in western Pa.; Walt Lowenfels (1897-1976), a poet who became the editor of the Pa. edition of party's paper The Worker in 1938; John Kelly Ellis (b. 1910), active in the CPUSA in the Philadelphia area; Jack Waters; and Earl Browder (1891-1973), general secretary of the CPUSA in the 1930s and part of the 1940s. Nabried and Lowenfels were among those who were arrested in Philadelphia and New Jersey under the Smith Act in 1953. A very unusual provenance. In Very Good- Condition: lightly rubbed; corners bumped; pages are clean and tight. (#005255) $285.00

5. Orwell, George. Nineteen Eighty-Four: A Novel by George Orwell. New York: Harcourt, Brace and Co., 1949. [4], 314 p.; 21 cm. Grey cloth with red and black spine and cover titles. No dust jacket. Book club edition: small black dot on back cover. Former owner's name on front free endpaper: M.L. Weyand. In Very Good Condition: spine is darkened; corners lightly rubbed; cover lightly rubbed and soiled; pages are clean and tight. (#005253) $38.00

6. Shirer, William L. End of a Berlin Diary. New York: Alfred A. Knopf, 1947. "First and second printings before publication." [2], viii, [2], 369, [1], vii, [3] p.; 22 cm. Blue cloth with silver stamped spine and cover titles. Top page edges red. Dust jacket with price on front flap; in mylar cover. Former owner's name and address on front fixed endpaper: J.G. Martin, Beverly, N.J. Review by Frank Brookhouser from the Sept. 21, 1947, Philadelphia Inquirer attached to back fixed endpaper. The journalist William Shirer presents his personal reflections from 1944 and 1945 on the end of World War II and his return to Berlin, his post before the war started. Book is in Very Good-Condition: ends of spine are faded; discoloration on back board; shadow from clipping formerly housed between p. 308 and p. 309; otherwise, clean and tight. Dust jacket is in Fair+ Condition: loss along spine, especially at tail; creasing and chipping along edges; soiled; colors are still bright. (#005257) $48.00

7. United States; Congress; Senate; Committee on Public Lands. Mr. King made the following Report: The Committee on Public Lands, to which was referred the bill report by the Committee on Manufactures entitled "A bill to appropriate, for a limited time, the proceeds of the sales of the public lands of the United States having had the same under their careful and attentive consideration, are decidedly of opinion that it is founded in error, both in its principles and details". Washington, D.C.: s.n., 1832. 20 p.; 23 cm. Stitched; disbound from a volume containing pamphlets relating to government land offices. "In Senate of the United States, May 18, 1832, Read, and ordered to be printed, and that 5,000 additional copies be furnished for the use of the Senate."--at head of first page. Not in Checklist of American Imprints. Inscribed at head of first page: "John H. James from T. Ewing." Thomas Ewing (1789-1871) was a U.S. Senator from Ohio, first elected in 1831. John Hough James (1800-1881) was an Ohio lawyer who was elected to the Ohio Senate in 1836. President Andrew Jackson vetoed the bill in 1833. Very scarce. In Very Good-Condition: disbound; first leaf and final leaf foxed and browned more than the other leaves; small ink spots on first page; otherwise, clean and tight. (#005226) $25.00

8. Woodbury, Levi. Affairs of General Land Office: Letter from the Secretary of the Treasury, transmitting a Report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, on subjects connected with the Land Office. Washington, D.C.: Thomas Allen, printer, 1837. 69, [3] p., 10 leaves of maps with color borders, most folded: tables; 23 cm. Stitched; disbound from a volume containing pamphlets relating to government land offices. "[Doc. No. 23.]"--at head of every page. The Secretary of the Treasury, Levi Woodbury (1789-1851), is officially sending a report from James Whitcomb, the commissioner of the General Land Office, to Speaker of the House of Representatives James K. Polk. The report contains 25 pages of tables showing the number of acres sold by each land office and how much money came into the treasury. Also contains data about surveying in various states and territories; maps relate to the surveys. In Very Good-Condition: disbound; scattered foxing; one map is detached and separated along some folds, but complete; final map is browned; otherwise, clean and tight. (#005227) $125.00

CHILDREN'S BOOKS

9. The Child's First Alphabet of Bible Names. Philadelphia: American Sunday School Union, 1827. "Stereotyped by L. Johnson. . . I. Ashmead & Co. Printers"--front wrapper. 15, [1] p.: woodcut illustrations; 10 cm. Blue wrappers, stitched; decorative border on each wrapper. Front wrapper illustration of a pocket watch. Identified as no. 16, IV series on front wrapper. Back wrapper bears publisher's advertisement for titles no. 80 through no. 94, except for no. 93. Each page contains 2 letters of the alphabet, each with a woodcut illustration and one rhyming line of identification. Very scarce. In Good+ Condition: faint initials inside front wrapper; upper corners creased; foxed and/or stained; otherwise, clean and tight. (#005242) $150.00

10. De la Mare, Walter. Peacock Pie: A Book of Rhymes by Walter de la Mare with illustrations by W. Heath Robinson. New York: Henry Holt and Co., 1927. "January, 1927." x, 178, [2] p., color frontispiece: many in-text and full-page illustrations; 21 cm. Dark green cloth with gilt stamped spine and cover titles, and gilt stamped cover illustration reproducing the title page vignette. No dust jacket. In Near Fine Condition: ends of spine and corners very lightly rubbed; clean and bright. (#005259) $22.00

11. Nothing At All. New York: Stephen M. Crane, 1847. "Egbert, Hovey & King, Printers." 16 p.: illustrations; 13 cm. Green wrappers; wrapper title: Nothing At All: and The School Boys. Publisher's advertisement on back wrapper, which declares that Stephen M. Crane is the successor to Mahlon Day. Contains two stories; caption title of second story: The School Boys and the Little Birds. Very scarce. In Fair+ Condition: wrappers have separated; a former owner stitched them back on, but the back wrapper is separate again; wrappers are lightly soiled; some chipping along edges; light soiling and foxing; complete. (#005237) $25.00

12. Passion and Punishment: A Tale for Little Girls. New Haven: S. Babcock, 1840. 8 p.: 7 woodcut illustrations; 75 mm. Blue wrapper, stitched, with ornate border on both wrappers. Title vignette of a girl being chased by two boys. Each page of text except the first has an illustration. Back wrapper bears advertisement for the publisher's "Toy Books, of every variety and description . . . New Series of all the different sizes just published." No date of publication or publisher's address. 1840 is an approximate date of publication. Sidney Babcock (1797-1884) was a successful publisher of children's books who popularized very small booklets called toybooks, such as this. This title is more common in the yellow wrapper. In Very Good- Condition: wrapper is separating along spine but otherwise intact; pages have light soiling with faint dampstain on a few pages; otherwise, clean and tight. (#005241) $45.00

13. Townsend, Elizabeth W. The White Dove. Charlestown, Mass.: G.W. Hobbs, 1854. 32 p.: hand-colored illustrations; 10 cm. Orange paper over boards; illustrations and decorative borders on both boards. A collection of poetry. The first poem, The White Dove, is an abridged version of a by Elizabeth W. Townsend (b. 1808). No date of publication. George W. Hobbs published in Charlestown, Mass., from 1853 or 1854 to 1873 or later. Pet Story Books, No. II. Contents: The White Dove; or, Little Jacob's Temptation -- The Walk -- How to be Happy -- The Foolish Fish -- Lucy and Dicky -- The Nest -- The Baby -- The Dog. Very scarce. In Very Good- Condition: front board is detached; back board is attached via an old owner's sewn repair; boards are lightly soiled; edges rubbed; faint dampstain along fore-edges; otherwise, clean and bright. (#005243) $45.00

14. The Wonderful Lamp; Revised by the Committee of Publication of the American Sunday-school Union [bound with] Mary Brown and the Lamb. Philadelphia: American Sunday-School Union, 1842. 16, 16 p.: illustrations; 1 cm. Black leather spine with gilt-stamped spine title: The Wondf. Lamp. Marbled paper over boards. No date of publication. Title page gives publisher's address as 146 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, where it was located from 1827 to 1853. This title was listed in American Sunday-School Union catalogues from 1842 to July 1860. Scarce American Sunday School Union publication for children. In Good Condition: lacking about half of the leather from the spine, although the spine title is present; back joint is open; boards are lightly rubbed; light foxing and soiling. (#005234) $24.00

EPHEMERA

15. Compliments of Ilsley, Doubleday & Co., New York. New York: Ilsley, Doubleday & Co., 1887. Notebook 6 x 11 cm. Leather with gilt-stamped cover title. Ilsley, Doubleday & Co. was located at 3rd Ave. and 117th St., New York City. It sold paint, varnish, and other painters' and artists' supplies. This notebook would have been given to a customer; it contained lined paper with information about the company at the head of each sheet and inside the covers. The notebook was patented in 1883 by Mills, Knight & Co., Boston. Inside the back cover is a listing of five other related New York businesses. Only 3 leaves remain in the notebook, one containing a calendar for 1887 and the others covered in an owner's business notes. Ilsley, Doubleday & Co. was established in 1872 by William C. Ilsley (d. 1917), Chester P. Doubleday, and Edwin S. Doubleday as a manufacturer of Bidwell's Axle Grease and other lubricants. Very scarce. In Good+ Condition: edges are rubbed; back cover slightly discolored; pages are slightly soiled. (#005236) $25.00

16. Hatboro High School Commencement Program 1933. Hatboro, Pa.: Hatboro High School, 1933. 2 leaves; 14 cm. White card covers tied with a dark blue leather strip. Front cover embossed with leaf and vine decoration; printed in black "Hatboro High School" and a calendar for June 1933 with the 22nd, the date of graduation, printed in dark blue. One leaf of dark blue moire paper, with cutouts to hold a small card with the name "Hugh Brooks." The two leaves of text contain information about the commencement, including the names of the class officers. The class president, Frank Sundheimer, had emigrated with his family from Germany 10 years earlier. In Near Fine Condition: slight discoloration where the ends of the leather strip have touched the front cover; otherwise, clean and bright. (#005252) $25.00

17. Remember Schenley for Sunny Morning Flavor [address book with recipes for Schenley reserve whiskey and gin]. New York: Schenley Distillers Corp., 1947. [44] p.: illustrations; 8 cm. Black card cover with cover illustration of the Schenley rooster. Cover title. No date of publication. Calendars for 1948 and 1949 are on front and back fixed endpapers. Printed in red and black. A very scarce Schenley advertising item. In Very Good Condition: faint dampstain in upper portion of some pages; no writing on any pages; tight. (#005239) $24.00

Contact us by phone (215 823-9607) or through our website
classicbooksandephemera.com